

I Am Shining My Radiant Light

In this hour I am shining My radiant Light on all the tares that have grown up in you, right beside the wheat. They have been growing up together. (Mat. 13:30)

And in this time I am exposing all the falsehoods, all the lies, and all the self deception that you have walked in. I am taking the covers off of the unholy ways, the attitudes, the thoughts, the intents and all of your motives that you have let live in you for many years.

Because of My mercy and for My Glory, I am showing you by unveiling My holiness afresh to you. I am showing you all your false altars, all your self-altars, all you have built in place of My true Altar of worship. All of the places that you have loved and served selfish desires instead of choosing to lay down your lives for a real love for Me.

Not by what you do for Me but for who you are in Me is what I am looking for. How you are led by My Holy Spirit. How you choose to live in an ascended place with Me, choosing My love, My humility, My completeness and My wholeness—these that will allow you to live in harmony with Me and with each other.

Take heed, Beloved that the light that is in you is not darkness. (Luke 11:35) For so long you have measured yourselves against one another, walking in pride, presumption and arrogance; judging one another and even pointing the finger; spreading the poison of fear and suspicion and even a covenant breaking spirit and ways to many that are around you.

You see, in this time I am looking for those whose hearts are perfect towards Me and towards each other.

Love is the ultimate key that unlocks the heavens in your life.

Do not be blinded by thinking that I still see everything the way you do. I am God and My standard is perfection.

In My grace and by My strength, My Bride will begin to hunger afresh with a deep, deep place crying within her for the awakening of My love. I am calling her from a long, long, long sleep.

She will begin to cry out, “Change me, transform me and deliver me from evil!”

As she humbles herself in My Awesome Presence she will see that I am Holy and I am God and that she must allow Me to make the necessary adjustments and for her to receive the fresh discipline that is needed in her life to grow and mature into fullness and richness that I have had for her.

My Beloved must search and look for the narrow road to come up into the radiant Light, to come up higher in Truth, higher in character, higher into a holy life where holiness is the only standard.

As she chooses this narrow road, she will lay down many things that so easily get her off the path. Little foxes that will spoil her vine and she will have rotten fruit. Things that she could have never seen on the wide road that leads to destruction if My radiant light did not shine on her to reveal to her own traps, her ruts and the dangers of moving too fast only in her own light.

So ask for the Ancient Paths—that which is True. Many things we have been taught are not the true pattern of Jesus and are not of His Kingdom.

So beloved, listen carefully, for just because things are growing does not mean they are completely God. Remember God prunes back what is overgrown and not necessary. He is separating and sifting and dividing in this time, calling all to return to Him and His True Altar of Worship.

He needs an undefiled priesthood, consecrated unto Him, not just duty. He is looking for true agreement and covenant in every way of the Father. He is looking for those that He can entrust with His Glory, entrust with His Kingdom.

For the earth is groaning, waiting for the manifestation of the sons of God.

Prepare yourself for true transformation.

Many of you have a lot of head knowledge, read a lot of books, think you are filled with all kinds of revelation of Me but it has not gone deep to be filled with My Light.

You must begin to look like Me and My Kingdom. You must begin to sound like Me and My Kingdom. Be very watchful in this time to stay on the narrow road.

You must love Me and My Presence more than anything else.

For there is a great shaking that is coming that is only going to intensify and everything in you that is not of Christ will be shaken. The judges are in the earth and the Lion is roaring against all false altars, false priesthood, false relationship, false ways, and false representation of His Kingdom.

When we come into the Presence of the Holy, it is not common. It is not casual. It is a time of awe and a time of bowing. A time of giving ourselves away and the more that we give away, the more He will give us Himself.

Many are not prepared to minister at all. Many have never really encountered the true Holy One of Israel—have never allowed Me to break their hearts first. Until then, Beloved, you are just going through a lot of motions, duty and performance, living off your own highs, drinking your own drinks, eating your own food, and expecting Me to come your way.

God is sending His Holy Fire and His Fresh River to prepare us for His Glory.

Will you make yourselves ready?

So many of your homes and churches and ministries are filled with so much strife. Don't you know, Beloved, strife is not of My Kingdom? The sound of strife will pollute your soul.

There are jealousies, wrong motives and every evil work in the midst of My Kingdom. Do you even know that that grieves the heart of God?

How about all of the competition and comparisons and casual ways that have entered into the house of the Lord? Where there is no fear of God, anything goes. Anyone can start a ministry, anyone can do anything and lead many astray. Even in My leaders, they have no fear of God.

Shine Your Light Lord, on all of these places. Bring us to Your True Altar. Let us again lay ourselves on Your Altar that we might be consumed by Your holy fire.

God wants to burn out all unholy thoughts. Do you know, gentlemen, when you even look at a woman with lust that grieves the heart of God? Women: the same thing. It is in front of your face every day on the TV. It is front of your face on every billboard but you do not have to look at it.

You are filthy, filthy, filthy and you will only see this in My Light. So we hide in great darkness from the true Light of the Lord. For, many love the darkness more than the Light. (John 3:9)

My Beloved Ones, I am coming in a way you have never seen Me before. Be watching!

So think it not strange that you feel like you are in a new place. Give Him Glory! Every time He takes you into a new place it feels so foreign because you have never been there before. And what the enemy will try to get us to do is run back into the light that we are familiar instead of running into the next place of the brightest light that God wants to take us into.
